

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. THE COVENANT.

“ Beloved in the Lord :

As believers in the Lord Jesus Christ you now confess Him before men, and are to be received into the company of His disciples, and into the fellowship of this Church. .

Humbly confessing your sins before Almighty God, your Heavenly Father, and trusting His mercy as revealed in Jesus Christ our Lord, you enter into covenant with Him and with His Church.

To God, your Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier, you devote yourselves and yours without reserve and forever. And you engage, as partakers of the same hope and joy with us, to observe the ordinances of Christ, promising to seek always the peace, purity and liberty of the Church, to love and help its members as your brethren, and so far as in you lies, to maintain with us the spirit of unity in the bond of peace.

Do you so covenant?

[Those who have not been baptized will receive this ordinance.]

We then, the members of this church, together with the whole company of professing believers among us cordially and affectionately receive you. We welcome you to fellowship with us in the fullness of the Gospel of Christ, to membership with us in the great household of faith on earth and in heaven, to the strength and comfort which our Lord bestows, to His easy yoke of service and to His promised rest to our souls.

And now, beloved, you are no more strangers and sojourners, but fellow-citizens of the saints and of the household of God, being built upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief corner stone.

For this cause we bow our knees unto the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that He would grant you according to the riches of His glory that ye may be strengthened with power through His spirit in the inward man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith: to the end that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be strong to apprehend with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled unto all the fullness of God.

Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto Him be the glory in the Church and in Christ Jesus unto all generations, for ever and ever. Amen."

HISTORICAL NOTE.

The church in Amherst College was organized March 7, 1826, about four and a half years after the founding of the College and was named the "Church of Christ in Amherst College." The name was chosen to indicate explicitly that the church was not sectarian but simply the church of the College. It adopted articles of faith and a short covenant which are printed in the Manual published in 1878.

In 1783 a service was adopted for the introduction of new members in which the Apostles' Creed took the place of the articles of faith, the old covenant was expressed in an amplified form and the service was so arranged as to recognize all among us who had confessed Christ by inviting them to join with the members of this church in welcoming new members. During Dr. Burrough's pastorate a form of recognition was adopted for those who did not transfer their membership from the home churches. By a separate covenant and welcome they joined the company of believers among us in what is still recognized as the "Covenant of Christian Living."

Until within recent years there were two regular church services, one in the morning and the other in the afternoon. First the afternoon service was changed to "vespers" which consisted of worship with a very short address. October 12, 1899, the church voted to do away with this afternoon service except on communion Sundays, when the celebration of the Lord's Supper would take its place. This action seemed advisable since the Young Men's Christian Association wished to establish an evening service and to ask the preacher of the day to address them.

The church still recognizes the importance of the work of the College Pastor and maintains the office. The preachers, however, are, to a large extent, selected from the various churches of the country.

In issuing this book, the church has voted to modify again the form for the admission of new members. The Apostles' Creed has been omitted; those joining us from other churches are not asked to covenant anew and the declaration of faith has been expressed in the form of a covenant. This covenant is a condensation and in some places a recasting of the covenant of 1873, though much of the old remains, especially where it used the words of the Bible.

On May 23, 1893, the church called a council to ordain Mr. Edward Fairbank of the class of 1889, and to set him apart as a Foreign Missionary. The undergraduates of the College undertook half the support of Mr. Fairbank and up to this time have succeeded in their effort. He is stationed at Vadala, India, and represents the College.

THE ZION MISSION

During the pastorate of Dr. Stearns a Sunday school was begun among the colored people in Amherst, in the old Amherst Academy building on Amity street. Very few of them had any church home. In 1873 a chapel was built for them by subscription and placed upon the College grounds. As the number of the people increased the need of a preacher became evident and for many years the mission has been supplied with a regular pastor, mainly at the expense of the College Church. Almost all the colored population of the village are connected with this mission.
